November 14, 2007

Dear McEachern Members and Friends,

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and our Lord Jesus Christ. Today, I give thanks for all the missions and ministries of our congregation.

There are so many things going on this week that I will simply list them in bullet format.

- Our Church Conference is scheduled for this Sunday at 2 p.m. at Powder Springs United Methodist Church. The format will be a worship service of one hour with our district superintendent preaching. All are encouraged to attend.
- The Georgia Festival Chorus will perform in our sanctuary this Sunday at 7:30 p.m. This is one of the highlights of our musical year at McEachern.
- Our community Thanksgiving service is Monday, November 19th at 7 p.m. at Macland Presbyterian Church. We will be joined by the congregations from Macland Presbyterian and Lost Mountain Baptist Churches. I will be preaching.
- Plan to stay after the 11:00 worship services this Sunday for a Missions Thank You luncheon. There IS such a thing as a free lunch! The meal will be catered by Magnolia Moments, the same folks who cater our Wednesday Night Suppers.
- Our Wednesday Night Supper tonight will be held in the Christian Life Center rather than Oaks Hall as previously announced. Remember that November 28th will be our last supper for the year; we will reconvene on January 9, 2008.

Almighty God, we give you thanks for all the activity on our campus. Help us never be so busy with activities that we forget that they are ministries where we re-present you to a dark and hurting world. May our focus always be on reaching others for you and for your kingdom. For we ask this in the name of the one we serve; Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

God Bless,
